

My dear friends of WCC - Wednesday Conversation Classes,

I am only reminding myself with American History - read, study, learn, know /there might be a questionnaire - not a test - coming soon/.

At this point I only need to get some feedback from you and thus I am asking you to write a paragraph on a historical figure - a famous personality of American History. The paragraph does not have to be long. Introduce the person, say why they are significant for US history and say in which time the person lived.

You can speak about, for instance:

Ronald Reagan

Abraham Lincoln

Martin Luther King, Jr.

George Washington

Benjamin Franklin

Barack Obama

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Thomas Jefferson

Walt Disney

Albert Einstein

Thomas Alva Edison

John F. Kennedy

Bill Gates

Eleanor Roosevelt

Lance Armstrong

Muhammad Ali

Rosa Parks

The Wright Brothers

Henry Ford

Neil Armstrong

or others.....

I hope you are not too sad for missing out our Wednesday classes. I keep you in my thoughts
