

Hi, these are the tasks to do the next week.

Deadline for both of them - 24. 4. 2020

TASK 1: ENGLISH ME exercises – see your group there and do the exercises (and more if you wish)

TASK 2: 1) Go to <https://www.oxfordlearnersbookshelf.com/>

2) In section Oxford Readers Collection (now free for everyone studying from Maturita Solutions or English Plus) find the book Henry VIII and His Six Wives. This is your task to read this week. Audio book included.

Find more information on the internet (there are films, documentaries. Search, recommend). Henry VIII (Tudor dynasty) was one of the most important kings in English history. Make notes from each chapter. You are going to use them next year while studying British history in your English conversation classes.

CHECK your email EVERY DAY. Keep in touch. Feel free to contact me (kocarova.eva@gmail.com) any time you need help or feel like talking.

Have a good time and take care!
